

50th Anniversary Grant-aid Scheme Application Form

(1) Your Group or Organisation
Name of Group	Witney Youth Council
Registered Address*	Town Hall, Market Square, Witney
Post Code	OX28 6AG	Tel No.
Contact Name	Annie Hathaway
Position in Organisation	Administrator <small style="text-align: right;">(i.e. Chairman, Treasurer, Secretary)</small>
Registered Charity	NO	Registration No.
What are the activities and/or aims of the organisation: The Witney Youth Council supports and empowers young people in Witney to be more involved in making decisions about issues and services that affect them in their futures. A Witney Youth Council gives children and young people a 'collective voice' that is listened to and helps influence actions by decision makers. The main aims of the Youth Council are to create spaces for young people, to create learning opportunities for young people, and to develop projects which represent young people. To do this, the members attend regular meetings and support local events.
(2) Grants
Purpose for which the £50 grant is required: The Youth Council members would like lanyards for identification at events. This will not only serve a purpose for the members safety and making sure they are seen but also for helping them be a point of reference for other young people to give their ideas.

Has your organisation previously applied to the Town Council for grant-aid?	NO
